

"SPORT" IS NOT DEAD YET.

INJURED ELEPHANT MAY NOT BE KILLED, AFTER ALL.

His chance for life seems very slight. However, Sport, the elephant who was injured by the fire at the circus, is still alive. He is now in the hands of the circus men, who are doing their best to save him. He is now in the hands of the circus men, who are doing their best to save him. He is now in the hands of the circus men, who are doing their best to save him.

RATHBONE IS DEFIANT.

MAY BE ARRESTED IF HE ATTEMPTS TO LEAVE HAVANA.

Has Stated That He Will Sell on Saturday. "La Lucha" Prints an Indirect Threat That He Will Make Trouble if Arrested.

Today the paper prints an editorial, said to be based on positive statements made in quarters that are able to back them up, that if Rathbone attempts to leave Cuba he will be arrested. It declares that a persistent attempt to make him a scapegoat.

WAR OVER FOR MAJESTIC.

SHE RETURNS TO NEW YORK AFTER SIX MONTHS' CAMPAIGN.

Went Twice to Cape Town With Troops and Brought Back Sick and Wounded. Her Handsome Saloon Was Turned Into a Hospital—Only One Wounded Man Died Aboard.

The White Star liner Majestic, which arrived last night from Liverpool and Queenstown, has not been seen in this port since last November, when the British Government took possession of her, utilizing her as a transport and hospital ship.

Director of Posts Bristow has done more slashing. He is reorganizing the money order and registry departments, which will be consolidated under one chief, effecting a net annual saving of $3,000.

Decorations Day was observed here by the closing of all the American offices and the firing of a national salute. There were no ceremonies of any sort, there being no graves to decorate.

TWO WOMEN CLAIM HIRAN SLOCUM.

Long Branch Man Under Arrest in Jersey City for Abandonment.

Hiran Slocum was arrested in Long Branch and brought to Jersey City yesterday to answer a charge of abandonment made by his wife, Bessie Slocum, who is living at 35 Mulberry street. There is a probability that Slocum may be called upon to answer the charge of bigamy.

When the prisoner was arraigned in the First Criminal Court the complainant said that she was married to him in this city on June 15, 1900, but that he did not live with her until the following October. After that time he lived together for a month in Slocum's apartment and his wife heard nothing of him until April 23, this year, when she received a letter from Long Branch signed "Mrs. Hiran Slocum."

The wife claimed to have been Slocum's wife for several years and threatened the other woman with violence if she should ever attempt to claim him. On Monday last the witness received a letter from Slocum, asking her to come to Long Branch and join him in a railroad ticket. She turned the letter over to Chief of Police Murray. Slocum was held in $500 bail.

A Great American Dictionary

That Has Aroused Enthusiasm Throughout the World.

HAVING WON FIRST PLACE AT HOME, ITS UNQUESTIONED SUPERIORITY IS NOW RECOGNIZED IN EVERY CIVILIZED COUNTRY ON THE GLOBE.

MORE REASONS WHY

Standard Dictionary

1900 Subscription Edition

SATISFIES EVERY REQUIREMENT AS NO OTHER DOES.

BECAUSE It is not a narrow or provincial work. It was planned on a most comprehensive basis, to make it what it has now become, the one complete and reliable book of reference with regard to the English language for all people of all nations.

BECAUSE The expert knowledge and authoritative scholarship of the entire English-speaking world were laid under tribute as never before, 250 of the world's leading scholars and specialists in all departments and all countries having labored together for five years to produce the Standard Dictionary.

BECAUSE It is new from cover to cover. Nothing is reprinted from or based upon any other work. It has many new and distinctive features never before introduced in any dictionary, including practical conveniences, educational helps, valuable tables, handsome colored plates, and many thousands of words and definitions not to be found in any other dictionary or work of reference.

THE 1900 SUBSCRIPTION EDITION

Is the Only Edition of This Work Which Contains the Following Features:

- It has THOUSANDS of NEW DEFINITIONS in the body of the work—the language is growing daily.
- It has THOUSANDS of NEW WORDS—many of these in the body of the work, and others in the Appendix.
- It is UP TO DATE.
- It has SEVERAL ADDITIONAL and costly full-page COLORED PLATES illustrative of definitions, as, Grains of Woods, Butterflies, etc., etc. These colors are reproduced with wonderful fidelity.
- It has EIGHTY-EIGHT FULL-PAGE MAPS, making a complete and up-to-date atlas of the world.
- THE REVISION OF THE ENCYCLOPEDIA matter includes all the geographical changes in the progress of the world made since the Chino-Japanese, Turko-Grecian, and Spanish-American wars.
- It has a patented UNIVERSAL CALENDAR—exceedingly ingenious—illustrating the word "calendar," and of permanent value.

Besides TENS of THOUSANDS of ENCYCLOPEDIA ITEMS of information invaluable to professional and business men.

THE SUBSCRIPTION EDITION OF THE STANDARD DICTIONARY CAN BE SECURED ONLY THROUGH CANVASSERS OR THROUGH THE PUBLISHERS DIRECT. IT CANNOT BE BOUGHT IN BOOK STORES.

It is the HIGHEST Authority in the United States Patent Office:

A. G. Wilkinson, A. M., M. D., Ph. D., a Principal Examiner since 1890, formerly Professor of Languages, University of Missouri, says: "The high authority of the Standard Dictionary is one of its most important features. It is the most perfect dictionary ever made in any language, and I have time and again consulted it in six different languages almost daily."

It is the FAVORITE DICTIONARY in the U.S. Government Printing Office:

FAVORITE IN GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE. C. M. Robinson, Foreman Proof Division: "We have in constant use in our room all the modern dictionaries, but the most thorough thumb-work of all is The Standard. It is not only the most accurate, consistent, and complete, but its typographical excellence makes it the favorite among men engaged in book-making. It is 'up to date.' Hundreds of useful words and helps are found in The Standard which can be found in no other publication of the kind."

LORD ROBERTS
Commander in Chief of Her Majesty's Forces in South Africa.

What He Says About the Standard Dictionary:

He knew I took it into my hands by admiration, because for the arrangement, research, the primary arrangement, and the careful attention to details displayed in this remarkable compilation. It is a masterpiece of research, and a credit to the compiler. It is a masterpiece of research, and a credit to the compiler. It is a masterpiece of research, and a credit to the compiler.

A LETTER FROM BRET HARTE:

The new "Funk & Wagnalls Standard Dictionary" has given me unfeigned pleasure. I find it combines the completeness of an Encyclopedia with the facile condensation of a Dictionary. I am glad to notice that with its great derivative research it does not exclude more modern words and meanings. The plates, diagrams and colored illustrations make it also a capital book for casual entertainment, and I might add that the great space it often gives to elaborate definitions would seem to remove, from this volume at least, the criticism of the western farmer upon the Dictionary that was lent him, that "it was mighty good reading," but it changed the subject too sudden.
